

Dixonites Hurt in Crash; Holiday Toll Heavy

Mrs. Bohn's Lawyers Hit at Finch, Supervisors

Attorney Says Sheriff, Board Have 'Interest'

Lawyer Makes New Venue Change Plea

In an answer to the charge that six relatives of Mrs. Mary Ann Bohn swore she could not get a fair trial in Lee county, the defendant's attorneys said today there was nothing in law to prevent relatives from filing affidavits about the case at hand.

Mrs. Bohn currently faces charges of reckless homicide in connection with the deaths of three Harmon residents in an accident Aug. 13.

Her attorneys, Gerald Fearer and Ralph Eaton, originally filed 12 affidavits in an attempt to prove Mrs. Bohn could not face an impartial jury in Lee county. They asked Circuit Judge George C. Dixon to transfer the trial.

In an answer, State's Attorney Morey C. Pires said six of the 12 who signed affidavits for the transfer were related to Mrs. Bohn by either blood or marriage. Pires contended that the relatives could not be "disinterested" in the case. He produced 28 affidavits—27 from Lee county board of supervisors and one from Sheriff Gilbert P. Finch—which bore sworn statements that Mrs. Bohn could face an impartial Lee county jury.

Hit Finch, Board

Fearer and Eaton, in reply, attacked the affidavits of Sheriff Finch and the county board, saying both had a "natural interest" in keeping the case in Lee county.

Mrs. Bohn's attorneys charged that the sheriff—because he was the law enforcement officer in the county—and the county board—because it compiled the jury lists—were interested in keeping the case here.

New Affidavits

Fearer and Eaton also produced the affidavits of seven more Dixonites who swore Mrs. Bohn could not get an impartial jury here.

Those affidavits were signed by Charles M. Patterson, 514½ N. chusa avenue; Edna C. Hargrave, 211 S. Dixon avenue; Mars F. Caeder, 803 W. Second street; Jul W. Reeves, 316 Lincoln avenue; Joe L. Beecher, Jr., 611 Second street; Mrs. Gordon Nygaard, 324 W. First street, and Muriel Johnson, 318½ W. First street.

As it stands now, both the state and the defense will argue their positions in front of Judge Dixon Wednesday, Jan. 4. Judge Dixon then will rule on whether the case will remain in Lee county.

Mt. Vernon Couple Collects $2,500 From UP Railroad

Chicago, Dec. 27—(AP)—A $30,000 damage suit against the Union Pacific railroad was settled out of court today by payment of $2,500 from Mrs. Eleanor R. Mitchell of Mt. Vernon, Ill.

Mrs. Mitchell's attorney, Kenneth B. Hawkins, announced the settlement.

Mrs. Mitchell, 40, wife of John R. Mitchell who owns a radio station and a furniture store in Mt. Vernon, charged in the superior court complaint that three waiters attacked her Feb. 15, 1947 in Sun Valley lodge, Idaho. The resort is operated by the railroad.

The suit related that the woman suffered a black eye and bruises on one arm after the lodge employees forced their way into a room occupied by the Mitchells. Earlier, the suit said, the Mitchells had complained of service in the lodge.

Cary Grant and Bride End Honeymoon

Hollywood, Dec. 27—(AP)—The honeymoon of Cary Grant and his Christmas bride, Betsy Drake, is over.

Miss Drake, 26, is due to report to her studio today for a movie role. The 46-year-old Grant is slated to start a movie in a few weeks.

Their one-day honeymoon was as closely guarded a secret as was their runaway marriage Sunday in a desert home near Phoenix, Ariz.

Multi-millionaire Howard Hughes, a master of secrecy, piloted the movieland couple in his own plane to and from Arizona.

It is the third marriage for the handsome Grant and Miss Drake's first.

UNCONSCIOUS SINCE THURSDAY—Lawrence Bull, 10, who suffered a basal skull fracture when he was thrown to the pavement by a car on First street Thursday, entered his 120th hour of unconsciousness today at noon. His attending physician, Dr. Charles LeSage, said Lawrence was "still unconscious" with his condition "unchanged." Lawrence ran into a car in front of his home at 802 W. First street. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bull, he was taken immediately to KSB hospital. The car was driven by William M. Swain, 612½ Monroe street. Lawrence apparently tried to cross the street to join a group of classmates on their way to Lincoln school when the accident occurred. School was due to adjourn for the holidays the same afternoon.

Three Days of Fun Ended, Truman Goes Back to Work

Independence, Mo., Dec. 27—(AP)—The fun of walking and talking with old friends is about over for President Truman.

After three days of doing just what he wanted to during a brief Christmas holiday vacation in his home state, Mr. Truman planned to get in some work today in his Muehlebach hotel penthouse apartment in Kansas City.

Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, told reporters that while the president intended to do considerable work, nothing urgent was expected to come before him until he returns to Washington tomorrow.

The president still must put the final touches on three major messages to congress—state of the union, economic report and the budget.

Yesterday Mr. Truman presented a statue of Andrew Jackson to his home county. Miss Margaret Truman, the president's daughter, unveiled the statue with about 1,500 Jackson county residents looking on.

John Haefner Suing F. L. Jahn for $1000

John H. Haefner filed a complaint in Circuit court today and asked for a $1,000 judgment against F. L. Jahn, charging Jahn violated a contract to deliver a corn picker Sept. 15, 1947.

According to the complaint, the contract was drawn July 10, 1947, and Jahn promised to deliver and install a corn picker or return a $500 payment. Haefner, charged Jahn did not deliver the corn picker or return the money.

Haefner asked for a return of his money plus interest.

The Windsors Return To U. S. for a Visit

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are back in the United States for a while, and the Duchess says she is not looking for a job.

The Duke said he had been occupied for some time writing his memoirs.

The couple, who arrived on the Queen Elizabeth, said they plan to stay in New York until spring and then go to the Duke's Calgry, Alberta, ranch, for the first time since 1941. It is the couple's first visit to the U. S. in nearly three years.

'Heat Is On'; Santa Brings Spring to East

Boston, Dec. 27—(AP)—A Christmas week "heat wave" brought record-high temperatures in New England today.

And along with it came strange reports:

Crickets out on Waterbury, Vt.; haying in Middlebury, Vt.; lilacs budding in Massachusetts; maple syrup sap running in Vermont; and pansies threatening to run rampant in Salem, N. H.

Worcester, Mass., reported 59 degrees above zero—breaking a 54-year-old record of 58 for the day.

Boston's 60 degrees before noon equalled a record set in 1895.

All indications pointed to record-high temperatures everywhere throughout the six-state region—possibly for the remainder of the week.

AFL Asks 1950 Pay Boosts on Reduced Costs

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—The AFL served notice today that its unions will seek "substantial" wage boosts in 1950.

The big labor organization mentioned increases of 7 to 15 cents an hour as a goal. The wage drive was outlined in the AFL publication, Labors' Monthly Survey.

Increased wages are possible, the publication said, "without causing a general increase in living costs" if management and labor work together to improve production efficiency.

Keep Cost Records

The article went on: "Some amazing results could be accomplished if workers were given week by week cost records, so they could see the results of their efforts, and management agreed to share the savings with them, determining the just wage increase by collective bargaining negotiation."

"At least a goal could be set of 7, 10 or 15 cents (an hour) more in wages through cost reduction."

"Intend to Go Forward"

"We intend to go forward in 1950 to win further wage gains, cooperating with employers to cut costs wherever they are willing to make this possible."

"By cooperation we mean a genuine joint effort based on submission of cost records; we do not mean acquiescence in employer dominated speedup schemes."

The publication said that a 10-cent hourly wage increase for all the nation's workers would boost consumer buying power approximately $8,000,000,000. It said this would insure a good business year in 1950.

DIXON CHRISTMAS BABY—There was one 'Christmas Baby' born in Dixon Christmas Day. The baby is Patrick Joseph Harmon, 8 pounds, 8½ ounces, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harmon, 1826 West First Street. Patrick came into the world at 10:09 Christmas morning. Patrick is shown above, yawning, 'bored with it all' in the arms of lovely Roberta Mercer, student nurse at KSB hospital. Why should the little fellow be bored? We simply cannot understand some children.

According to the accident report of Officer Raymond Olson, Moore failed to stop for a sign at Ottawa avenue and his car collided with an auto driven by Charles Konkrite, RFD 2.

The report said Konkrite's car hit the left front fender of Moore's auto and bounced off the left rear fender. Heavy damages but not injuries were reported.

Moore will be arraigned tomorrow before County Judge Grover W. Gehant.

Girl Raped Repeatedly by Trio After Her Abduction

Chicago, Dec. 27—(AP)—A story of a night of horror, in which she was raped repeatedly by three youths, was related to police yesterday by a 15-year-old girl.

The girl, a high school freshman, was under attention at Illinois Masonic hospital. Physicians confirmed her story of torture.

She told Detectives Vincent Decker and Frank Niermann she was on her way to church Christmas night when two young men asked her if she wanted a ride. When she refused, they forced her into an old sedan, driven by a third man.

During the following ten hours, the girl said, she was held captive in the car while the men took turns raping her and forcing her to submit to unnatural acts. She was let out at 3:30 a.m. Monday.

The girl said the windows of the car were steamed up and she could not see where she was driven. One man, she said, was about 19 years old and referred to as "Mike" by the others. The other two were about 18, she said.

James Mocklin, Wife Injured in Traffic Mishap

Husband, Wife Both in Hospital

Death avoided Dixon over the holidays when it chalked up 387 traffic fatalities nationally, but three Dixonites were injured—two seriously—in a Rockford accident.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mocklin, Lincoln avenue, sustained severe injuries Monday when their car collided with another auto.

Mocklin, 79, was reported to have suffered several rib fractures and a crushed chest and his wife a fractured hip and ankle, and possible concussions.

A Former Dixonite The other car was driven by a former Dixon boxer, Elwood McReynolds, now living in Rockford. McReynolds escaped with deep cuts in his left leg. McReynolds once won this district's Golden Gloves boxing tournament.

All three were taken to Rockford Memorial hospital.

Rockford police reported that McReynolds was driving north on S. Main street and collided with Mocklin's car when he tried to pass another auto. McReynolds was charged with driving on the wrong side of the street.

A second serious accident occurred late Monday about 25 miles northwest of Dixon. The Chicago couple involved in the accident told Dixon police their car hurtled off the icy pavement.

In Cold Three Hours

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jacobs said they waited three hours in below freezing temperatures for an ambulance to take them to a hospital. Mrs. Jacobs, 37, a currency exchange operator, suffered a fractured left leg below the knee. Jacobs escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

According to the Chicago couple, they were thrown through the right rear door of their car when it plunged into a ditch and then bounced back onto the highway—headed in the opposite direction. Jacobs said he was thrown 25 feet. A passing trucker helped the couple back into their car and promised to send an ambulance. When help did not come, another motorist called Farrell Funeral home in Oregon for Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs. They were taken to KSB

More Than 500 in Nation Are Killed

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Black crepe replaced the green holly in the homes of more than 500 persons killed in violent accidents across the nation over the extended Christmas holiday.

Nearly 400 of the deaths resulted from traffic accidents.

The traffic toll—387—was under the estimated 435 made by the National Safety Council for the period from 6 p. m. last Friday to midnight Monday.

Fires Kill 65

But the total soared far above 500 with other violent deaths. Sixty-five persons were killed in fires and 92 others lost their lives in accidents of miscellaneous causes. These included shootings, falls, electrocutions, plane crashes, exposure and asphyxiation.

Tragedy came to many homes in place of Santa Claus. A mother and her six children perished in a fire which swept their small home in San Antonio, Tex. Another Texas family of five was wiped out in an automobile-gasoline truck accident.

Texas led the nation with 55 violent deaths.

There were many simple little tragedies.

Chokes On Candy

A two-year-old girl in East St. Louis, Ill., choked to death on Christmas candy. In Clearwater, Fla., a 12 year old boy riding a bicycle collided with an automobile and was killed. The driver of the car, enacting the role of Santa Claus, was driving to Largo, Fla., to distribute Christmas gifts to needy children. A 14-year-old boy in Martinton, Ill., was fatally shot by his teen-age brother when the shotgun their father had given them for Christmas accidentally discharged.

But highway accidents took the heaviest toll. The safety council's records show that the toll over the three day holiday was above the average. The council said that in the first 10 months of 1949 auto accidents killed an average of 83 persons every 24 hours. The average covers deaths occurring long after the accidents in which the victims were injured. There were 396 accidental deaths over the 1948 two-day Christmas holiday, including 277 traffic fatalities.

Hiss Testifies He Subleased To Chambers

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—Alger Hiss testified today that he sublet a Washington, D. C. apartment to Whittaker Chambers, in 1935 by oral agreement and never received any payment for it.

Hiss, former high state department official, resumed the witness stand in his second perjury trial for further cross examination. The trial had been in recess since Wednesday for the Christmas holidays.

Chambers, former courier for a Soviet spy ring and the government's chief witness in the trial, lived in the apartment two months. Hiss testified. The witness said he charged Chambers nothing for furniture, gas, electricity or telephone service.

Before questioning about the apartment, Assistant U. S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy asked Hiss:

"Would it embarrass you if I asked you about the deaths in your family?"

"No," Hiss replied in a low voice.

"It is true, it is not, that there were two suicides in your family, your father and sister?" Murphy asked.

"That's right," Hiss replied.

Nelson Man Is Fined For Reckless Driving

Nelson — (Special) — Verlin Snyder of Nelson was fined $100 and costs Christmas day on charges of reckless driving.

NOTES FROM UNDER THE CHRISTMAS TREE—We spent a somewhat quiet Christmas in toy research . . . And can report that in our household there was a definite leaning toward a brown-eyed, red-nosed spindly faun named "Rudolph" . . . Rudolph, famed in song, if not story, thus receives the Coughlin Academy Award for the most beloved, and most durable, toy to be delivered by dear old Santa . . . It even got top-billing over a rubbery, lifelike doll which our four-year-old blond, blue-eyed niece, Patricia, promptly named, "No-name" . . . "No-name," a red-headed charmer, was shunted to the depths of the rubble, and "Rudolph" emerged as the champion of champions.

"RUDOLPH" WENT TO bed with Pat, sat very startled at a prominent place at the Christmas dinner, and generally was hugged, squeezed and conversed with throughout the Christmas weekend . . . Among all the other knick-knacks which Santa brought, one stood out as the family favorite . . . It was a game, played with dice, and which was realistically tagged, "Snake-Eyes" . . . Even the dice had a realistic click . . . We suspect that the Reno chamber of commerce had something to do with its introduction among the younger set . . . Yet the oldest went for it hook, line and sinker . . . As we departed, my Kansas-born, prohibitionist-minded mother, had cornered all the chips, and appeared as happy as any croupier this side of Monte Carlo.

WHAT MOM DOESN'T KNOW—yet—is that we introduced a quart of white wine into the basting of that Christmas turkey . . .

JOHNNY LOFTUS, Bill Witzleb and Bob Marshall of the Dixon Legion A. A. U. five, have been named on the Northern Illinois A. A. U. league all-star squad which will tangle with the Phillips Oilers on Jan. 21. The game is to be played in Rockford. Wayne Curran, of Sterling, wasn't with the Legion when it trimmed the Kings A. C. in the Rockford K. of C. tournament yesterday. He's due to suit up for the Wednesday game against the Yacht club, however.

THE LEE COUNTY SPORTSMEN'S club (Dixon version) is scheduled for its annual meeting Wednesday in the Elks club starting at 8 p. m. There will be an election of officers, the annual report of officers and a FREE oyster stev.

CURRENTLY THERE ARE TWO Lee county Sportsman's clubs in the news. The other, which we shall call the Amboy branch, has slated ITS annual meeting Jan. 25, for an election of officers, et cetera. We've been assured that "everything is all right" on this score, so we'll leave it at that—and hope that everything IS all right.

INCIDENTALLY, "PADDY" O'Rourke, secretary of the Amboy Sportsman's organization, called to inform us that Mrs. R. P. Lenihan of Amboy won that shootin' iron at the recent shindig held at Amboy. He thought that those who had made certain "investments" might be interested.

Russia Says Japs Planned Germ Attacks

Moscow, Dec. 27—(AP)—Testimony at the trial of Japanese war prisoners as carried by the Soviet press today gave the impression that the United States and Britain were to be targets of a germ war attack.

Newspaper accounts of the trial quoted Japanese prisoners as saying the scheme had progressed to the point where American prisoners were sent to special bacteria plants to be experimented upon as human guinea pigs.

Japs On Trial
The trial of 12 Japanese army officers was reported proceeding at Khabarovsk, Siberia.

By infecting their American prisoners with certain germs, the Japanese were quoted as saying they sought to determine how anglo-saxons would react to various diseases and plagues.

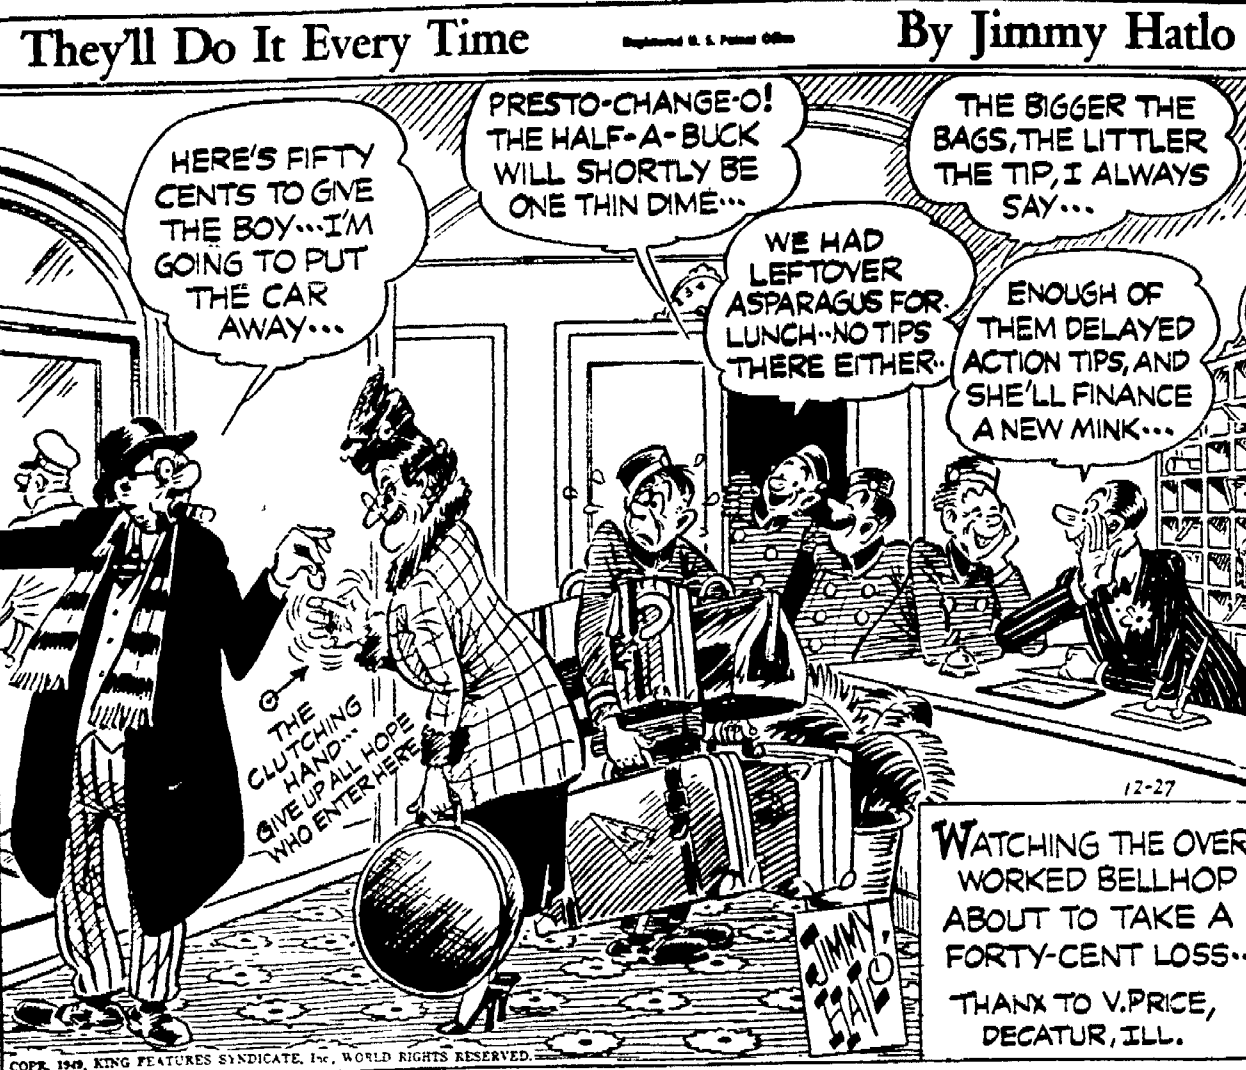

The accounts also said the Japanese experimented with their American victims to find out from what diseases they were immune.

The plan was, the newspapers said, to find out what kind of germs would be best to use in a bacteria invasion of the United States and Britain by the wholesale use of germs against the civilian populations.

Special Planes
The Japanese were also said to have given details how these germs could be dropped by air-planes. The accused officers related, the newspapers said, how special airplane groups became part of the germ warfare plan.

The accounts said Gen. Ootoko Yamada, commander in chief of the Kwantung army which occupied Manchuria, confirmed the germ plans.

The details of the trial are being given full publicity by the Soviet press and radio. The accounts give

Thousands Wend Their Way To Holy Shrines in Cold

Vatican City, Dec. 27—(AP)—Near freezing weather today chilled some 12,000 pilgrims as they began their humble Holy Year visits to the four patriarchal basilicas around Vatican City and Rome.

The great colorful opening and the Christmas ceremonies most of them had come to witness were over. Today they visited the impression to the populace that the Soviet army saved the United States and Britain from the horrors of air borne germs.

basilicas of St. Peter, St. Mary Major, St. John Lateran and St. Paul outside the walls.

As the pilgrimage was going on, the Communist newspaper Unita continued to assail the Holy Year as a "new attack against peace."

The Communists called upon Italians to counter the Holy Year "provocations" with peace pledges on New Year's Eve.

It was estimated that 600,000 to 700,000 persons, mostly Romans, have flocked through the great portals of St. Peter's since the opening of Holy Year.

All civilization originated with colored races, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Posse Captures Alleged Slayer

Colfax, Wash., Dec. 27—(AP)—A 75-man sheriff's posse wounded and captured a 21-year-old youth, accused of murder yesterday after firing several tear gas bombs into a building where he had taken refuge.

The youth is Wayne Odell of Steptoe, Wash. He is charged with first degree murder in the death of Harold Rogers, a Winona, Wash., farmer.

Rogers, 47, was killed with a shotgun early Saturday when he ran to answer the screams of his 18-year-old daughter, Cora Jean. The girl told Sheriff Clarence Davis she screamed when she awoke and saw a man standing at the foot of her bed.

Odell and Rogers' daughter had "gone together" for a time, but a quarrel had broken up their friendship, Davis said. She is a student at Washington State College.

Ranch Worker Doesn't Recall Killing Woman

Santa Rosa, Calif., Dec. 27—(AP)—Formal murder charges were expected to be filed today against Carl Schwartz, 39-year-old ranch foreman, in the Christmas Eve slaying of Jane Maggard Dickson, socially prominent San Francisco Bay area newspaper woman.

Mrs. Dickson, 30, was shot and killed late Saturday as she was preparing Christmas dinner at the Black Point ranch home where she lived with her husband, Fred W. Dickson, grandson of the late Captain Robert Dollar. The victim was the mother of two children and was expecting a third.

Lyman Lacy, a friend and employee of Dickson, was shot and seriously wounded at the outset of a half hour reign of terror on the ranch.

Schwartz has denied any remembrance of the shootings.

"Why should I shoot anybody," he said. "I wasn't mad at anybody."

Officers said witnesses at the ranch reported Schwartz, whose birthday was Saturday, ran amok with a pistol after drinking. Mrs. Schwartz told Mc Goldrick her husband disliked "society people" in general and Mrs. Dickson in particular.

Jap Earthquake Is Followed by A Snow Blanket

Tokyo, Dec. 27—(AP)—Heavy snow today spread a new blanket of misery over central Japan, where eight persons were killed and hundreds left homeless by 20-odd earth tremors between Sunday night and this morning.

National rural police said eight were killed and one person was missing. Many were injured but only one seriously. Eighty-six homes and buildings collapsed and 283 others were badly damaged.

The earth's convulsions were felt in nine prefectures of Honshu, Japan's big central island. Imaichi, a city of 17,000 about 85 miles north of Tokyo, suffered most.

Approximately 100 Americans were in the stricken area, where the U. S. army has several rest hotels. All escaped injury.

In southern Japan, Mount Aso on Kyushu island quieted down after blowing its volcanic top yesterday.

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins

THE STORY: We have found an apartment, suitable and reasonable for John to use in starting his medical practice. But like a woman, I want to "fix it up."

Without previous experience in knowledge, except from magazine articles on home decoration I started out myself to paint it. John came and helped me a great deal, and helped me finish one room.

VII
THE next morning, Wednesday, I tackled the bedroom: pale blue.

On Thursday morning I was ready for the foyer. Mr. Schmitt, whose practical advice I had come to respect much more than the lyrical descriptions of the magazines had suggested that I paint the outer paneling first so as not to soil the wallpaper after it was on.

Obediently, I dug up my rose pigment and mixed, sitting over the paint with the same intensity that Macbeth's three witches used in stirring their famous brew.

When John arrived, again at 6, the outer paneling was all done, and I greeted him cheerfully with: "Now we're all set to paper the rest."

John was unimpressed. "I don't know how to paper a room."

"Neither do I," I answered, "but it tells how here."

I found a chapter in a book, and I proceeded to read aloud.

"You mean," asked John, "that you expect to read it just like that, and do it?"

"Of course," I said. "First we have to make the paste."

So we made the paste.

"Does it talk about lumps in the book?" he asked.

"Nope," I said after a hurried perusal. "But Mr. Schmitt did."

"What did he say," John spoke anxiously.

"To watch out for them," I replied. "But maybe it doesn't matter much."

Step No. 2 was cutting the paper. Since we had no table, we cut the long strips on the floor which was issue by Donald E. Keyhoe, a former information chief for the aeronautics branch of the U. S. Commerce Department.

The magazine, saying its conclusions were based on an eight-months investigation, stated:

"For the past 175 years, the planet earth has been under systematic close-range examination by living, intelligent observers from another planet."

"The intensity of this observation, and the frequency of the visits to the earth's atmosphere, by which it is being conducted, have increased markedly in the past two years."

The flying discs, Keyhoe writes, vary "in no important particular from well-developed American plans for the exploration of space expected to come to fruition within the next 50 years. There is reason to believe, however, that some other race of thinking beings is a matter of two and a quarter centuries ahead of us."

Project Saucer
The article says that "project saucer," operated by U. S. army air force investigators and charged with solving the mystery, "are receiving and evaluating" reports of sighted flying discs at the rate of 12 a month.

True learned, Keyhoe says, that a "rocket authority stationed at Wright field has told 'project saucer' personnel flatly that the saucers are interplanetary and that no other conclusion is possible."

Cases of reliably reported sightings, the writer says, are closely checked by teams of air intelligence officers and technicians.

Santa Pays Return Call at This House
Muskegon, Mich., Dec. 27—(AP)—The day after was just as happy as Christmas at the Robert Dillard home this year. Santa Claus paid a return call, as it were.

Sometime during the holidays Mrs. Dillard lost her $1,000 diamond ring. Yesterday she got it back.

Mrs. Miles Olsen found the ring, which had fallen into a Christmas package Mrs. Dillard had wrapped and sent to her.

London Merry-makers Stranded by Strike
London, Dec. 27—(AP)—The second day of a wildcat train stoppage stranded thousands of holiday travelers in London and the south of England today.

Less than a score of 268 motor-men slated for duty reported for work on the south region electric lines of the state-owned British railway system. The strike began yesterday because of dissatisfaction with the holiday duty roster.

Hughes a Candidate As State Treasurer
Chicago, Dec. 27—(AP)—William H. Hughes, a member of the Illinois Liquor Control Commission, will seek the democratic nomination for state treasurer.

Hughes, a brother of the late Illinois secretary of state, Edward J. Hughes, has opened campaign headquarters in Chicago's loop.

He is a former president of the Northern Bridge Company.

Town Destroyed by Fire on Christmas Eve, Will Rebuild

Hyndman, Pa., Dec. 27—(AP)—The fire which leveled this mountain community's business section has forged a new spirit of civic pride in Hyndman.

That became apparent today as merchants, town officials and businessmen started to lay plans for a new and better town.

The Christmas Eve fire burned out three blocks of the center of town. The bank, 12 other business buildings, about 20 homes and the postoffice were reduced to twisted, charred wreckage.

An unofficial estimate of damage compiled by businessmen placed it at around $1,000,000—a staggering amount for a town of about 1,500 population.

Build On Ashes

"We are going to build a better town than we ever had before," Charles O. Burns, cashier of the burned-out bank declared.

"The fire has bound the community together," George Keller, principal of the local high school said. "It is really amazing. Everyone is helping."

The high school was not damaged by the fire. Emergency relief headquarters were set up there.

Keller said "I do not know of a single person who is not doing all

Crackdown on Tax Dodgers Before Increases, Is Hinted

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—Congress may call for a crackdown on tax evaders and close some tax law "loopholes" before it considers any legislation to raise tax rates on individuals or corporations.

Rep. Forand (D-R. I.), member of the tax framing house ways and means committee, today told newsmen:

"If every tax legally owed the government were collected, I believe the budget could be balanced without resorting to any tax increases."

Problems Studied

Treasury and congressional tax experts now are studying the problem of tax dodging. Some estimated that the government is losing $5,000,000,000 a year by tax evasion and by the so-called loopholes. These permit some taxpayers to work the tax laws in a manner to trim down their tax obligations.

If that amount were collected it would just about cover what the government needs to balance the budget.

Meanwhile, republicans on capitol hill—expecting considerable support from democrats—lined up for battle against any proposal President Truman may make for tax increases.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. the house GOP leader issued a formal statement saying he expects the president to propose a multi-billion dollar tax-hiking program "so that the administration can proceed with its extravagant and illiberal plan to socialize America."

Depressive Effect

"A tax increase at this time," he said, "would have a depressive effect on economic conditions generally and might precipitate the country into a tail-spin which would cost millions of workers their jobs."

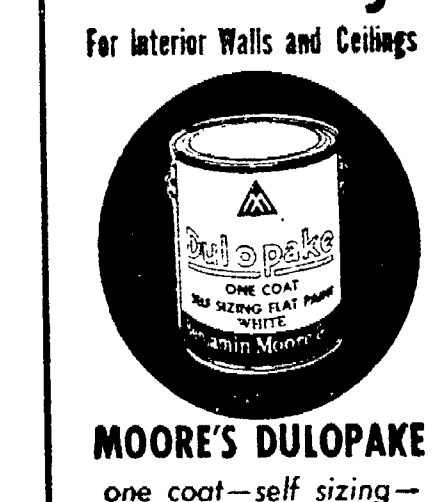

He predicted defeat for any tax-upping bill.

Martin renewed his plea for a slash of around $600,000,000 to $750,000,000 a year in the war-imposed excise rates on such things as furs, jewelry, luggage, communications and transportation. Such legislation now is backed by a substantial number of republicans and democrats. Mr. Truman has said studies are being made to see if the excises can be reduced.

AFL Publishes Its 'Unh, Unh,' Solon List

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor published a list of 107 congress members yesterday whom it described as having "opposed the best interests of workers, farmers, and small businessmen" this year.

Included in the list were the following representatives from Illinois:

Allen. Arends. Chipfield. Church. Hoffman. Jenison. Jonas. Mason. McMillen. Reed and Velde.

Here's the List of 1949's Best Dressed Gals in World

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—The 1949 list of the world's 10 best-dressed women was out today, and it reads a lot like last year's list.

Only two newcomers are on the roster of fine fashion. They are Broadway stage star Mary Martin and Mrs. Kingman Douglas, the former Adele Estaire, of Middleburg, Va.

Heading the list for the second consecutive year is Mrs. William Paley, slender, brunette wife of the head of the Columbia Broadcasting system.

Runnersup, as announced by the New York Dress Institute are:

2. The Duchess of Windsor, of New York and Paris.

3. Mrs. Harrison Williams, New York.

4. The Duchess of Kent, London.

5. Mrs. Leland Hayward, the former Mrs. Howard Hawks, of Hollywood.

6. Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Jr., Washington and New York.

7. Miss Martin, star of "South Pacific," of Norwalk, Conn., and New York.

8. Mrs. Byron Foy, New York.

9. Mrs. Louis Arpels, Paris.

10. Mrs. Douglas.

Except for Miss Martin, Mrs. Douglas and Mrs. Foy, all were on the 1948 list. Mrs. Foy was on the 1947 roster and several previous ones.

Many of those named have been among the top 10 for years, including the Duchess of Windsor and Mrs. Leland Hayward. Mrs. Williams has been so listed every year except one since 1933.

Mrs. Paley, in winning top fashion honors, is described as a simple dresser who buys comparatively few clothes.

The Rochester Royals of the National Basketball Association have three ex-Seton Hall cage captains on the squad—Bob Davies, Frank Saul and Bobby Wanzer.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He who has never denied himself for the sake of giving has but glanced at the joys of charity. We owe our superfluity, and to be happy in the performance of our duty we must exceed it.—Mme. Swetchine.

Why Lure Farmers to Over-Produce?

The country's efforts to take care of its farmers show better than anything else how puzzling our affairs can be today.

At the root of the matter is the fact farmers can produce more crops than people can buy at present prices. To assure the producers a decent income, the government has built complex machinery for shoring up the prices of the things they grow.

But this in turn has acted as a lure to farmers to produce more and more. This year's corn output will be the second highest on record, the wheat crop the fourth biggest. Production of many other commodities will be high.

Committed to supporting major farm prices, the government has no choice when market prices drop below support levels but to take the product off farmers' hands at an agreed figure. The operation of this plan has left the government owning mountains of eggs, potatoes, corn, wheat, tobacco, cottonseed and other items.

The situation has gone so far that alarmed officials are working hard to choke off this flow of unmarketable commodities into government warehouses. Next year cotton, corn and wheat all will be under federal acreage controls. Some crops already are restricted, and more may be added to the list.

In all this rush to halt rising surpluses there is an ironic twist. For while one set of government officials wrestles with unwieldy output, another group is bending all its energies toward stepping up both acreage and production.

Some $300,000,000 in conservation funds is being spent to help farmers improve their soil so they can grow more and better crops. Agricultural researchers are busy driving toward the same goals. And these efforts are paying off in higher yields at the very time other officials are seeing surpluses in their sleep.

As if this were not enough, the bureau of reclamation is every year opening more western land for irrigation farming. For 1949-50 the addition to useful soil will come to more than 400,000 acres.

We can't stop trying to improve our often badly depleted soils or adding to basic farm resources, especially when all signs point to a population advance of about 25 per cent in the next generation.

It looks as if the contradiction in this situation will have to be corrected at the other end. What we need is a price program that will protect farmers against heavy loss but will not act as a lure to production until the market demand warrants greater output.

Draft Law Is 'Cheap' Security

Soundings in the capital suggest congress will be hard to sell on the idea of extending the draft law which expires in 1950. Yet there seem good reasons for approving the three-year renewal the administration wants.

Naturally congress hates to enact anything so distasteful to people as a draft law during a political year. The old arguments against "dragging our boys off to military camps" will weigh heavily.

A prime fact for the lawmakers to remember, however, is that existing draft powers are not being used now and probably will not be in the months ahead. The authority is being held in stand-by cold storage while the services fill their requirements through volunteering.

It might be asked: If that is so, why is the law needed? One answer is that the mere existence of the act is a big spur to enlistments. For until the law was adopted in 1948 volunteers were insufficient to meet minimum military needs.

Secondly, if the authority were allowed to lapse the government could not restore draft machinery to a full working basis in less than four months. Everything we've heard about the likely nature of another war tells us that a four-month lag might be the difference between victory and defeat.

Nobody is claiming war is just over the horizon. On the other hand, no one pretends to know the real aims of our prospective enemies, the Russians. All we are sure of is that they appear capable of anything, and there we must be ready for anything.

Having a draft law on the books sounds like a pretty cheap form of insurance against trouble. It's doubtful there are any better bargains in security to be had.

People Make Married Life Happy. Not the Reverse

If you are happily married, you realize that happiness lies within your own self. If you are unhappy, it is not completely dependent on your spouse. You are more likely to be happy over a long period of time if you are happy in your own self.

It is a fact that a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage. This is because a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage. This is because a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage.

It is a fact that a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage. This is because a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage. This is because a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage.

For, after all, most marriages go through unhappy as well as happy times and the wife who gets down in the dumps because her marriage isn't exactly right at the moment isn't going to do the marriage much good.

On the other hand, the wife who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage. This is because a woman who is happy in her own self is more likely to be happy in her marriage.

America's Card Authority

A Merry Christmas to you and all of the card players throughout the world. I firmly believe that card players have learned how to really enjoy cards and at the same time, through their charity card parties, to do a great deal of good. So in appreciation for the millions of dollars all of you have raised for various charities I hope Santa Claus will fill your stockings to the top.

I want to give you an unusual safety play today as a Christmas present. The opening lead of the king of spades held the first trick. West then played the ten of spades, wanting his partner to overtake it with the ace, so he could lead back with a club. East did overtake, but declarer trumped with the three of hearts.

If West had not led the ten on the second trick, but the queen of spades, and East did not overtake, the declarer's correct play would have been not to ruff, but to discard a club. However, when the ten was overtaken with the ace, declarer had to ruff to prevent a club shift.

At this point the average player would proceed to cash the ace, king and queen of hearts, but that would be the wrong play. You must make a steady play and provide against four trumps being in one hand. You lead the six of hearts and let the opponents win the trick. Now if they continue with a spade you have a heart in dummy to trump with.

However, if East wins the trick and returns a club you can jump up with the ace. You then pick up the outstanding trumps and cash your five diamond tricks. Your ace of clubs gives you your tenth trick for your contract.

Not being particularly clever, brilliant, sedulous, or diligent, I can make no great claims. I simply wish to relate several facts and a few personal opinions.

It seems that a Dixon bar owner was fined 250 dollars of late. It also seems that an age produced said fine. It also seems that a male citizen of Illinois must 21 years of age to buy a drink. Why? Some misinformed person must have suggested the law.

Cities Science According to one of the world's leading psychiatrists, a citizen of Philadelphia, the following are scientific facts: The average male has three stages of maturity; 25, physical maturity; 35, emotional maturity; 45, spiritual maturity. These are averages, not infallible truths. When then is the age of 21 determined as the drinking age?

In the opinion of the writer, everyone should be given a physical, mental, and emotional examination before given a drink. Since this proposal is not practical and utterly ridiculous, how then should a bartender know when or when not to sell someone a drink?

Record Observations The only logical way to observe people over a period of time, record their observations, and from that draw a conclusion. Of course, while conducting this scientific experiment, the citizen involved might starve to death. Not being a firm follower of Carrie Nation, I consider this method most distressing.

Since none of the aforementioned proposals considered sane (mine, not those of the Philadelphia gentleman), I suggest that the bartender be the final judge.

As previously stated, the ages of maturity are merely averages. A male of 18 might be emotionally mature, whereas a person of 50 might have the mind of a baby. Maybe some laws should be revised.

Is it any wonder the voters are getting fed up with men in public office? Graft seems to be the No. 1 'take'.

New York, Dec. 27.—The rising contempt for the people among men of power in public office is apparent again in the votes of the board of estimate and the council of the City of New York to raise the pay of Mayor O'Dwyer and others—now that the election is out of the way.

O'Dwyer's salary goes up from $25,000 to $40,000. The controller's salary is increased from $20,000 to $30,000 and there are other grabs, diminuendo down to favorite secretaries with an understandable desire for more of the good wishes of life. The only public official on the list who is actually worth his present pay of $15,000 and even his raise which brings him up to $25,000 is Robert Moses, the park commissioner, who is widely recognized as one of the most useful constructive Americans of his time but, ironically, can't be elected to any office because he will not flatter the vanity or exaggerate the intelligence of the common man.

This is not an attempt to analyze and deplore in detail the schedule of raises, but more an essay on the arrogance of public officials toward the faceless people who vote for them and who can be relied upon absolutely and almost invariably to forget affronts and failures next time around.

An Ex-Copper O'Dwyer is an ex-policeman, a native of Ireland, whose success in the United States is a dramatic refutation of the organized plan of an organized propaganda to the effect that we are a Fascist country in which "minority groups" are, as it were, stoned in the streets. He has been fortunate beyond the deserving of his ability, for he is a mediocre man whose city administration has been markedly unsuccessful. To be sure, he faced unusual problems in the inflation and the moral disorganization which ensued upon the war, but these problems were plainly apparent when he sought the job both times. And he contributed mightily to the inflationary process. After a brief hesitation his vanity succumbed to the temptation of the official mansion, the only official mansion provided for a mayor in the entire United States, and moved in. This was an early symptom. Later, again with the election out of the way, he used a police airplane. The property of the City of New York, to take him and his fiancée on a vacation trip to Saratoga. That was an improper use of public property which emphasized the fact that if the plane could be so easily spared that the mayor could use it for courting purposes it wasn't necessary at all and had better be decommissioned and sold. He had no more right to use this ship for this purpose than he had to commandeer a hook-and-ladder truck from the fire department to drive to Florida.

Self Indulgence The mayor next went into hospital for rest and treatment which presumably were necessary and which no kindly citizen would deny him. But he went into Bellevue hospital, which is a municipal institution, and had got luxe accommodations whereas the common man has been suffering gross indignities and cruel neglect in some other city hospitals, but not Bellevue as far as I know, although he is not coddled as O'Dwyre was, even at Bellevue. This self-indulgence was reminiscent of the conduct by Harold Ickes, the old miser who was facetiously known as Honest Harold, in putting himself away in the naval hospital in Washington for quarters, meals and treatment at an absurdly nominal price on two occasions, contrary to law and contrary to the humane and altruistic professions of all new dealers. Ickes justified his imposition on the ground that the accommodations in the hospitals available to the public in Washington were very bad. They were good enough for the tax-payers but not up to the standard which Ickes required and they cost the faceless man roughly ten times as much, all things considered.

Well recovered, Mr. O'Dwyer took off for Florida for his wedding and honeymoon while the streets of the city showed alarming evidence of decadence in city government, and the press raised a legitimate fear of a water-famine caused in part also by stupidity and neglect in the city hall. O'Dwyre is a prince of privilege, and the members of his princely court, a very low-grade lot of common city politicians, enjoy privileges in proportion to his.

President Truman's 81st congress so well measured the docility of the faceless man that on Jan. 19, 1949, the day before he was inaugurated for his second actual but his first elective term, he was awarded a tax-exempt gift of $50,000 a year. This is represented to be an expense allowance, but that representation is a fraud. He does not spend it for expenses of his office but puts it in his pocket. The $50,000 or $200,000 for a four-year term, is a special bonus for President Truman and he now enjoys a tax exemption of $51,200 as a man with a dependent wife.

By contrast with the $12,000 exemption of George Spelvin, American. While they were at it, the statesmen of congress, feeling more and more their absolute power to confiscate every dollar of every citizen's earnings under the income tax amendment, had the gall to grant themselves each an outright gift of $2,500 a year, also in the phoney guise of an expense account for which they are not required to account. None of them will spend any of it on any legitimate expense of the public service and the frank understanding among them was that this was a gift of public money by themselves to themselves. Their tax exemption is now $3,700, assuming a married man with a dependent wife, by contrast with Spelvin's $1,200 exemption. It is more than three times the exemption which they allowed the citizen whose taxes pay their salaries and this graft.

Not a word was said during the recent campaign by O'Dwyre or any other member of the band of racketeering parasites who put over this graft for themselves about any intention to raise their own pay at the first opportunity. Had anyone let the cat out of the bag, the ticket would have been beaten, so in this respect the election was won by fraud.

Unfortunately for Mr. O'Dwyre and his cohorts they were unable to grant themselves income tax exemption on their raises. And the Democratic 81st congress, perhaps by lack of foresight and humane thought for their brothers under the skin, and neglected to do it for them.

Before the parade, the senate majority leader will be guest of honor at a dinner given by fellow townsmen. Lucas' speech and highlights of his career will be broadcast.

A delegation of democratic leaders, including Governor Stevenson, Illinois House Speaker Paul Powell and state chairman George D. Kells, will be present for the program.

Restaurateur Is Santa Claus To a Hungry 400

Indianapolis, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Restaurant-owner James R. Hightower doesn't have a family with which to spend the holidays, so yesterday he decided to play host to his customers.

He put a sign in the window of his Rose City cafe in the downtown district offering free chicken dinners to the first 400 persons to come in between 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m.

It didn't take him long to drum up trade. In a short time his small cafe was filled and there was a long line on the sidewalk outside.

By 2 p.m. the 400 dinners were gone and Hightower and his weary employees closed the doors. Then they had to go home to get something to eat—all the food in the cafe was gone.

"It wouldn't have seemed like Christmas without giving something," Hightower said.

"Sunnyskies" in Holiday Attire

One of the gayest and loveliest parties of the holiday season was given Christmas Eve by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Jenkins of Akron, Ohio, and Grand Detour, at their lovely early American summer home in Grand Detour, "Sunnyskies."

The Christmas spirit prevailed throughout the house. In the living room a ceiling high Christmas tree sparkled with electric lights of various hues. There were dozens of beautiful tree ornaments made of felt and studded with jewels and sequins that dazzled the eyes. Peeping from behind the branches were miniature kitty-cats, elephants, Santa Clauses, angels and many more articles of interest. They added an artistic splendor and fascination and were made by the deft fingers of the hostess, Mrs. Jenkins.

The dining room was resplendent in the way of decorations. The table was candlelight and sandwiches and assorted cakes were served.

Some thirty guests attended the annual party and again all congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, charming and delightful host and hostess.

Eight Named To Farm Board In Mt. Morris

Mt. Morris—Eight men have been named to represent farmers on the advisory council of the local agricultural department of Mt. Morris high school.

They are Forrest Kinsey, president; Kenneth Zellers, vice president; Darrel Davis, secretary; Myron Stengel, Leonard Satterfield, Merville Horst, Francis Baker, and Linus Zumtahl.

They were chosen because of their interest in the agricultural department and community welfare. The council decided that this year's evening school should be a 10-week course—beginning Jan. 5—on electrical wiring. The course will offer practical experience in selecting wire, splicing, wiring three and four-way switches, and installing duplex receptacles. The class will be limited to 32 members. Interested farmers should contact a member of the advisory council.

The Mystery of Gravity Has Been Solved by Mr. Einstein, But to Prove It, Is 'Poser'

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—Dr. Albert Einstein, whose theory of relativity helped open the whole vast field of atomic research, has put forward an even more sensational theory.

He calls it "a generalized theory of gravitation."

It is a mathematical description of the mystery of gravity—the common force that keeps our feet on the floor and rules the movements of the stars.

If it can be proved, it will become a "universal law" and, in the view of other scientists, will stand as the highest scientific achievement of all time.

It would explain every physical motion in the universe, from the inside of an atom to the enormous galaxies of outer space.

It would crown with success the life work of Einstein, who has spent the last half of his 70 years looking for the answer to this ultimate problem, known to science as the "unified field theory."

It was revealed to the world here yesterday on 20 mimeographed pages — mixture of typewritten words and squiggly mathematical symbols that even scientists hesitated to interpret. It was the English translation of Einstein's original German.

Tough To Prove

Einstein describes it as an extension of his relativity theory, and was quick to point out that he has "not yet found a practical way to confront the results of the theory with experimental evidence"—or in short, to prove it.

When he published the "General Theory of Relativity" in 1915, Einstein suggested several actual tests that could be made to prove his ideas—and which actually did prove them in 1921. But this new theory is apparently so abstract that Einstein could not think of a physical test for it.

Einstein himself was not present at the public announcement, which was made at the opening of the annual meeting of the American Association For The Advancement Of Science.

The Princeton university press presented the paper. It is publishing it in February as an added chapter in Einstein's own book, "The Meaning of Relativity." Einstein is now professor of mathematics at the Institute For Advanced Study at Princeton, a non-university group for fundamental research.

Explains His Aim
At the start of his paper, Einstein explains his aim:

"I shall try to present an attempt at the solution of this problem (the unified field theory), which appears to me highly convincing, although due to mathematical difficulties I have not yet found a way to confront the results of the theory with experimental evidence."

Several times before, Einstein has thought he had the answer, then discarded his ideas as faulty. But now his friends think he has actually discovered it, the magazine Scientific American said in a parallel article.

"He is said to have told close associates that he regards it as his greatest achievement," the magazine said. "He is reported to have given enthusiastic blackboard explanations of his equations."

But proof, if the theory can be proved, may take years, and any practical use may take years longer.

In earlier theories, Einstein linked up space-and-time, matter-and-energy, and gravitation-and-inertia, as all parts of a single concept.

But one great force was left out—electromagnetism. This is what creates "electricity" and it is, like gravitation, an invisible force field that can act at a distance.

The new theory now includes electromagnetism, and it and gravitation are now viewed as two forms of one overall force.

In 1905, Einstein's "special theory of relativity" showed that matter could be turned into energy—a fantastic amount of energy.

It seemed only a scientific curiosity until some matter—uranium 235—was turned, into energy 43 years later over Hiroshima.

No one knows what it will take to prove Einstein's new theory. Or how long . . . or where.

South and North Dakota and Minnesota lead the states in number of city-operated liquor stores.

Passerby Saves Motorist's Life In Blazing Auto

Sterling, Ill., Dec. 27—(AP)—Cecil W. Ward, 29, of Sterling, probably owed his life today to a passerby who smashed the glass in Ward's blazing automobile and pulled him free through the rear window.

Ward was hospitalized with burns on his face, hands, arms, and legs. He was rescued by Walter Stegall of Rock Falls, who came upon the burning automobile yesterday about three miles south of Rock Falls.

Junior Pierce, 22, of Sterling, the driver of the car, was found wandering nearby. Police held him on charges of operating a car while under the influence of liquor, having fictitious license plates and failure to have a driver's license. Neither Pierce nor Ward knew how the fire started, police said.

Ernest Bevin, Sick, Leaves for Meeting

London, Dec. 27—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, looking worn and pale from his recent heart attack, left today for a meeting of commonwealth foreign ministers at Colombo, Ceylon.

The big problem before the diplomatic meeting opening Jan. 9 is how to stem the red tide in the far east. The foreign ministers will cover the whole range of mutual political and economic worries including the growth of Communist China, a Japanese peace treaty and the continuing dollar shortage.

A Lot of Congressmen Face The Voters Again in 1950

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Dec. 27.—(AP)—In another week congress will be back. It will be the start of an important year for most of the congressmen, since most of them face the voters before the year is over.

The seats of all 435 house members, and one-third of the senate, are at stake in the elections next fall. So what they do this year will be a factor in whether they come back again in 1951.

They know that. And a lot of them will have to take their stand on the "fair deal" program President Truman is going to present to them. It will be the main fighting point in the election campaigns.

Of course, some of them, for one reason or another, have their home territory so sewed up, that no matter what they do this year they'll still get re-elected.

Taft Has Battle

Certainly a lot of attention will be focused on Senator Taft of Ohio who already is campaigning for re-election in 1950 and, if he wins, will be a contender in the Republican presidential nomination in 1952.

But the Democrats, who have a majority in both house and senate now, want to win even a larger majority in the 1950 elections. Led by President Truman, they have their guns pointed at the election date.

If they get that big majority—that is, if Truman's all-out supporters get it—they'll try to whip through the 1951 congress a good chunk of his program which fails to pass in -1950.

Not all the Democrats are all-out Trumanites. For instance, the southern Democrats may support the president or some things but almost solidly they'll close ranks to defeat his civil rights program.

Health Program Out

No one around here is rash enough to predict that Truman's national health insurance program has a chance of getting through the 1950 congressional session. It probably won't come up for a vote.

Yet, it will be a campaign argument for the Trumanites in the fall elections. And, if they win stronger control of congress in the elections, they'll probably claim that as a mandate to push health insurance.

The same goes for the Taft-Hartley labor act, which Senator Taft helped write. When the Republican backed congress in 1947 they put that through.

T-H Repeal Again!

But one of the main planks in Truman's 1948 successful presidential campaign was a promise that if he and his Democrats got control of the government, T-H would be wiped out. Labor backed him.

Then when repeal of the T-H came up in the congress of 1949, it turned out that Truman and all-out supporters didn't have the strength after all to push it through.

Since there hasn't been any change in that strength, it's doubtful the Trumanites will try to repeal T-H in 1950. But—they then can appeal to labor again in 1950 and say something like this:

"We want to repeal but we need more Trumanites elected. So get behind us."

And labor probably will, since labor wants outright repeal and it's only the Trumanites who promise that much. The most the Republicans are willing to go for is some changes in T-H.

Truman in 1948 appealed to the Negro voters of the north with his campaign program for new civil rights laws, such as poll tax repeal, anti-lynching, and an FEPC (fair employment practices commission).

The southern Democrats were able to block that in the 1949 session and probably will be able to do so again in 1950. So on that one too the Trumanites can, in the 1950 elections, talk of what they'd do in 1951 if they got more Trumanites into congress.

This is only part, although a big part, of some of the big issues in this up-coming congress. But more than ever in 1950 congressmen will have to have one eye on the bills they vote on and the other on the voters they'll face.

Dutch End 300 Years Rule Of the Fabulous East Indies

Amsterdam, Dec. 27 — Queen Juliana of The Netherlands proclaimed independence for 77,000,000 Indonesians today in a simple palace ceremony that ended 300 years of Dutch rule over the rich Pacific Isles of the East Indies.

With her signature, the new United States of Indonesia officially became a sovereign republic. The ceremony also marked the beginning of the Dutch-Indonesian Union under which the two nations will be loosely linked under the Dutch crown.

Natives Celebrate

On the other side of the world, dark-skinned natives celebrated the independence for which they fought four years of sporadic guerrilla warfare. U. S. I. leaders took over control of the Indonesian capital of Batavia, Java from Dutch troops.

Amidst the solemn formality in the marble-halled "civic hall" of the palace Premier Mohammed Hatta was present to represent his new country.

The ceremony in Amsterdam was opened by Premier Dr. Willem Drees, who confirmed the Ratification of the agreement as the result of 10 weeks of Dutch-Indonesian round-table discussions last summer.

Queen Juliana, accompanied by her husband, Prince Bernhard, was then led into the hall by Drees and minister of overseas territories Dr. J. H. Van Maarseveen. The royal couple was seated at the oval table with the rest of the delegates.

After the formal act was read by Dutch cabinet secretary Dr. M. J. Prinsen, it was signed by the queen, Drees and Van Maarseveen.

The act transferring sovereignty and granting recognition to the new federation was then read and signed by the same three.

As soon as Drees declared the union consummated, Hatta signed all the documents and expressed the hope that the union would bring happiness and prosperity to both peoples.

A. U. N. Victory

Thus was culminated the agreement, signaling a major achievement for the United Nations whose conciliation commission paved the way for the Dutch-Indonesian agreement.

The agreement had been ratified earlier by The Netherlands government and all 16 Indonesian states—including the larger Indonesian republic and 15 smaller federated states.

A Rich Territory

It unites under Dutch commonwealth status islands covering 743,885 square miles—about three times the size of Texas—including Java, the richest and most populous; Dutch Borneo, largest in area and rich in oil; Bali, home of beautiful ceremonial dances and fine handicrafts; Sumatra and numerous smaller, less populated islands. The area produces a vast wealth of minerals, spices, tea, coffee, rubber, quinine, tobacco, rice, coconuts, coconut products and citronella oil for chasing away mosquitoes.

The Dutch Indonesian agreement leaves Dutch New Guinea under the control of the crown for one year, during which time The Netherlands agrees to study the political and economic factors of that area with a view to granting it sovereignty as part of the U. S. I. in the future.

Japs Given Approval For Merchant Fleet

Tokyo, Dec. 27.—(AP)—General MacArthur today gave the Japanese government permission to spend 8,600,000,000 yen (nearly $24,000,000) to build up Nippon's merchant marine.

Earlier the allied occupation commander announced private imports will be restored in Japan on New Year's Day.

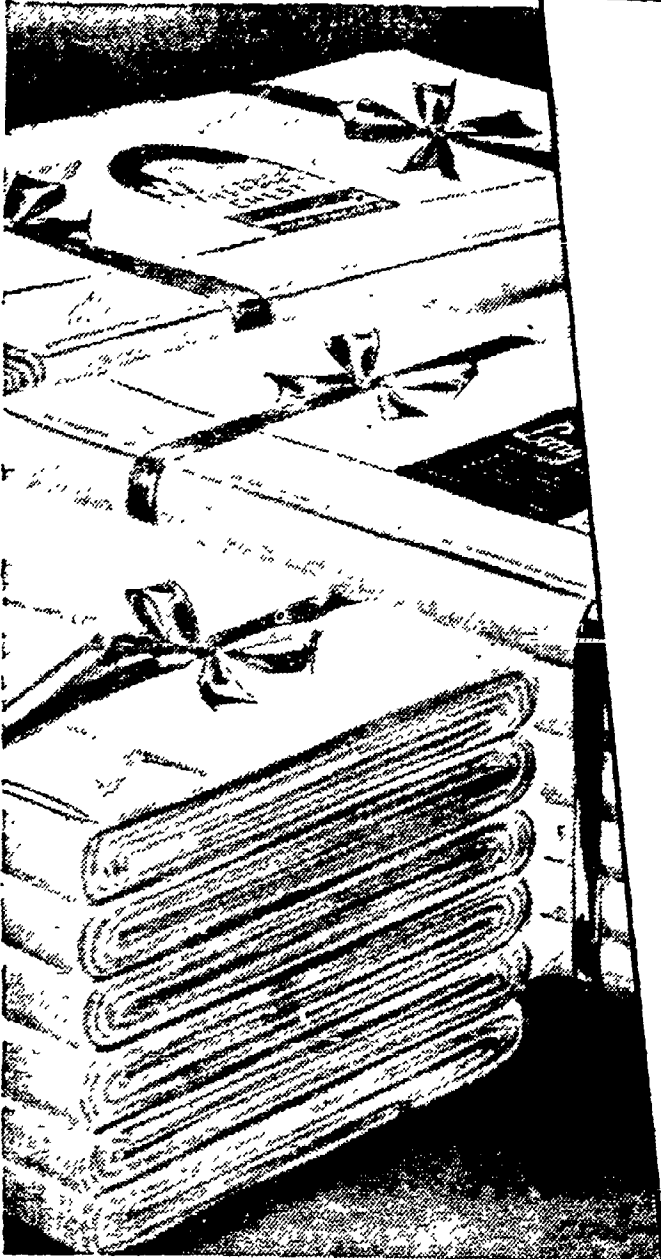

The merchant marine program provides for the construction of 275,000 gross tons in new ships and the conversion of 272,000 gross tons of war time vessels to ocean going merchant ships.

Oddly enough, Sammy Sneed and Byron Nelson were the defeated golfers in the two PGA championships which produced the largest winning margin, 8 and 7.

New Year's Resolution Poll, Shows Women's Ideal, Despair

When it comes to men's habits one woman's ideal is another woman's despair. At least that seems to be the meaning of a recent New Year's resolution poll.

When American women are asked to make a New Year's resolution for their husbands or sweethearts, their replies cover a lot of ground, says the Woman's Home Companion who recently polled a cross-section of wives.

Let's face it! Wives from Long Island to Santa Barbara want to make their husbands over. At least American wives under 30 think there is plenty of room for improvement in the men they have married. To quote one from New York: "I'd like my spouse to exhibit a little more of the gaiety and interesting talk at home that he displays when we have guests."

But the other side must be heard. From California comes this red-head's reply: "I wish he'd be as entertaining with guests as he is with me."

Is there no peace for the male come the eve of New Year?

Look no farther say the women of 35 and over. They accept the man as he is. At least Woman's Home Companion polls shows that this age group is less interested in making their husbands over. They like 'em as they are.

But even these wives make a qualification. They wish their husbands wouldn't work so hard.

'Goodfellows' Were Generous

Lucy Roe, and a group of members of the Girls' Athletic Association of the high school and others who helped with the sorting of the gifts and packing of the baskets, a huge job.

C. L. Ballard of the Rock Island Transfer Co., as usual donated a great truck and driver and spent the day delivering the baskets. The truck was manned also by Fire Chief Jake Johnson, Chief John Quest of the rural fire department, Assistant Chief Chester Stangeland of the city department, and three young men, "Chuckie" Willett, Jim Boedecker and Art Mueller.

Many Donors

No record was kept of the donors of toys. There were other anonymous donors of food, cash, etc.

The Social Committee of the different home rooms of the Dixon High school brought in a huge quantity of food, mostly canned vegetable, fruit, etc. and flour, potatoes, apples, etc. The Dixon lodge of Elks very kindly permitted the use of their big basement banquet room for the assembling and packing of the baskets, a wonderful convenience since a large and easily accessible room is most important in the smooth operation of the project.

To all who helped in any manner, the Goodfellow Committee is deeply grateful and the happiness they brought to the many scores of little girls and boys on Christmas day is their reward.

U. S. Weather Near Normal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Temperatures appeared headed for normal or above marks over most of the country today, with only a few areas reporting sub-zero readings. There were several wet spots.

A fresh mass of cold air moved into western North Dakota and northwestern Minnesota to send the mercury below zero. But the chilly blasts weren't expected to hit much of the rest of the north central area.

Readings were above normal throughout most of the eastern and southern portions of the country and around normal in the mid-west and west.

Rain fell over parts of New England, northeastern states, the southeast and north central region and in Washington and Oregon coastal areas. Light snow was reported in Minnesota and eastern Washington.

New Jersey got the heaviest rains since summer. Up to 1.55 inches of rain was reported by the weather bureau in parts of the state, and there was more falling. Water supply officials said, however, that a couple of good storms are needed to ease the water shortage.

Temperatures were mild on the middle Atlantic coast, with the mercury expected to reach the mid sixties.

In his boyhood he attended both the Dixon grade and high schools.

Einstein's New Theory Challenged

Malboro, Mass., Dec. 27—(AP)—A 32-year-old English instructor at a junior college claimed today he developed a new theory of gravitation in his spare time before famed physicist Albert Einstein.

Einstein's theory, said to explain the real nature of what holds matter together—was announced yesterday by the Princeton University Press.

William G. Graves, youthful Colgate university graduate who came to Worcester junior college two years ago to teach English, said he has been working on his own theory independently since 1934 and completed it about two months ago.

Einstein said his theory was 30 years in the making. "If Einstein's theory and mine are the same I'd like to know it," Graves said. "I have attempted to show what gravity is, apart from what it does."

Graves said he has been pursuing this phase of theoretic physics strictly as a hobby. And he emphasized he was not seeking to detract from Einstein's announcement—he just wants to know if they arrived at the same conclusion.

SOCIETY Nuptial News

On Saturday, Dec. 10, Ruth E. Davis, daughter of Mrs. Mae Davis, Oregon, was united in marriage to James Hurd, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hurd of Mt. Morris. The ceremony was performed in the apartment that the young couple will live in on Washington street, Oregon.

Rev. Edw. Hunt performed the ceremony. The couple was attended by Donna Frihart and Nelson Kline. The bride was attired in a gray gabardine suit and had a corsage of yellow and white roses. Her accessories were black. Miss Frihart wore a brown gabardine suit and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

At the reception that followed the ceremony Mrs. Frihart, assisted by her daughter, Ruth Ann, poured. The decorations were yellow and white, with yellow and white chrysanthemums used for the flowers.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hurd left for a trip to Chicago. Upon their return they will be at home in their apartment in Oregon. Mr. Hurd is employed by the Kable Printing company, Mt. Morris.

Afternoon Unit Enjoys Luncheon

The Christmas meeting of the Dixon Afternoon Unit of the Home Bureau was held at the home of Mrs. Edward Holbrook. Mrs. Wilbur Stern assisted Mrs. Holbrook in serving a desert luncheon. Mrs. J. Fred Johnson led the group in singing Christmas carols. Following the business session, Mrs. Leon Garrison talked about the Safe Home Program of the Home Bureau.

The major lesson was given by Miss June Pilgrim, home adviser, on "Window Treatment." She talked about roller shades, venetian blinds, traverse rods, drapery fabrics and glass curtains and told that more windows are over decorated than under decorated. She illustrated her talk with a wide selection of choice materials. Her lesson was followed by a discussion.

Miss Pilgrim announced that the dates for the Housing Series to be held at the Farm Bureau Building, Amboy, had been changed to Jan. 18th, Jan. 25th and Feb. 1st. All families were urged to take advantage of these meetings.

Mrs. J. Fred Johnson gave the minor lesson, "Party Sandwiches." After her talk and directions for making the sandwiches, everyone enjoyed her sandwiches.

Recreation and the gift exchange were under the direction of Mrs. Harold Falk. The next meeting will be Jan. 18th, with Mrs. Eric Gerdes and Mrs. Grinnegar as hostesses.

South Dixon Unit With Mrs. Donnelly

The December meeting of the South Dixon Unit of Home Bureau was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Donnelly with 18 members and two guests present to enjoy the scramble dinner. Several types of "Party Sandwiches" taken from the lesson sheet, were served.

The business meeting opened at 1:30 with the singing of several Christmas carols. The regular reports were given and approved. A collection was taken for "Pennies for Friendship." The 4-H chairman announced that the 4-H club would hold a bake sale sometime in January.

Miss June Pilgrim gave the major lesson "Window Treatments." The minor lesson "Party Sandwiches" was given by Mrs. Don Holderman and the Health lesson by Mrs. William Fritts.

Following adjournment of the meeting there was a gift exchange. Recreation was in charge of Mrs. Lyle Shippert. The next meeting will be with Mrs

New Vet Laws To Be Issues For Congress

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—A pension bill in the senate and an insurance bill in the house are top priority items for veterans in the congressional session starting a week from today.

A bonus bill for World War II veterans is in the background. Even its strongest supporters among veterans' organizations do not expect this multi-billion dollar measure to get anywhere in the next session.

The house already has passed a liberalized pension bill for veterans of both world wars. Now it's up to the senate to act.

There have been estimates that over the next half century the bill would set the taxpayers back around $8,500,000,000.

One of its major features provides that any veteran would be considered permanently and totally disabled upon reaching the age of 65. He could get a $72-a-month pension if he had no dependents and an income below $1,200 a year, or if he had dependents and an income below $2,500.

Chairman Rankin (D-Miss) told a reporter the first bill the house veterans' committee will consider probably will be an insurance measure supported by the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Americans Veterans and Amvets.

Rankin has a bonus bill pending before his committee but isn't showing much of an inclination to push it. It would give World War II veterans $3 for each day of service in this country and $4 for each day of active service overseas.

Labor Wants to Know Costs and Share in Profits

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—A proposal that workers be told they can have a raise if they help costs came last night from the American Federation of Labor.

"Most American managements have never seriously tried to cooperate with unions by submitting cost data and assuring union members of a fair share in the saving that could be made by joint effort to reduce cost," it said.

"Some amazing results could be accomplished if workers were given week by week cost records, so they could see the results of their efforts, and management agreed to share the savings with them, determining the just wage increase by collective bargaining negotiations."

"At least a goal could be set of 7 cents, 10 cents or 15 cents more in wages through cost reduction."

The AFL made the suggestion in its publication "Labor's Monthly Survey." It said the plan could help keep up purchasing power without causing a general increase in living costs.

'Sir Walter' Gets A Broken Leg for Christmas Spirit

Chicago, Dec. 27—(AP)—Charlotte Zanstra, 18, of Chicago Heights, dropped her wrist watch down a 55-foot subway air shaft.

Delbert P. Jones, 21, a garage mechanic, came along last night as Charlotte was looking down the shaft. He got a flashlight and offered to go down after it. He fell down the shaft and broke his left leg.

A fire department rescue squad was called. The firemen went down the shaft more slowly, using a ladder attached to the side of the shaft.

Jones was recovered. The watch wasn't.

Ottumwa Walks as Bus Drivers Strike

Ottumwa, Ia., Dec. 27—(AP)—Bus drivers went on strike at 12:01 a. m. today, leaving this southern Iowa city of about 35,000 persons without public transportation.

A last-minute meeting between company and union representatives last night produced no results.

Thirty-five drivers and eight shopmen of the AFL bus drivers union struck against the National City Lines, Inc., after the bus firm declined to meet union demands for a 20-cent-an-hour wage increase. The present pay scale is $110 an hour.

Ottumwa residents went to work afoot and via car pools this morning. Mayor Herschel Loveless, meantime, met with the company and planned to confer later in the day with the union.

New Vitamin Is Aid Against Parasites

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—A new B vitamin, named PGA, was reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science today by Dr. Elvio H. Sadun of Tulane university school of medicine.

It protects chickens against worms, and thus becomes the first known vitamin to protect against parasites. Parasites are worms and bugs that inhabit living tissues. They cause diseases but are not germs.

Arms Aid to Europe Runs A Month Behind Schedule

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—American officials now estimate that United States arms and military equipment will begin moving to western Europe about Feb. 1—about a month behind schedule.

This delayed start means the administration will have only five months to use the $1,000,000,000 congress appropriated to rearm the Atlantic pact countries.

Money Earmarked
Unless the money is spent or earmarked by June 30, when the fiscal year ends, it will go back to the United States treasury.

Officials expressed confidence, however, that the fund could be spent or allocated within the time limit. Most of the paper work already has been done, they said, and the way is clear for rapid-fire orders once arms aid agreements are signed with each country.

Much of the delay stems from the unexpectedly lengthy discussions with the British government over explicit terms.

Each of the eight Atlantic pact countries that are to get American arms must sign separate agreement with the United States which specify how American equipment is to be used in defense of the north Atlantic area.

Britain last week objected to the wording of the draft agreement suggested by the United States, nearly three weeks previously.

The British suggested some changes and officials said these have been more or less accepted in the informal talks of the past week.

Formal negotiations with the British on the exact wording of the agreement are expected to begin here within the next few days.

State department officials are hoping to wind up the British talks quickly since the other seven Atlantic pact countries are holding up their signatures until the British are ready to sign.

Recovery Is First

Government officials told a reporter that the United States has assured the British that they will meet one of their requests—that it be stated clearly in the agreement that economic recovery will have priority over the mutual aid aspects of the military program.

State department officials said they had never meant to imply otherwise and would be glad to satisfy the British on this point.

In addition, the state department has told Britain informally, it was learned, that it will omit any written ban against sending homemade military equipment outside the north Atlantic area.

In the original American draft the United States had suggested that each country agree to consult first with the United States before making any important military shipments outside the north Atlantic area.

Britain Objects
Britain questioned this on the grounds that it might interfere with sending military equipment, when needed, to such areas as Malaya and the Middle East.

The state department now has decided to leave out any reference to this at all. It is taking the position that it can always object through its representative on the north Atlantic council when it believes such shipments are weakening the total defense forces in the north Atlantic area.

Government officials emphasized, however, that the ban against transferring any American mili-

Diets Seem To Vary With Our Incomes

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—Low income Americans are improving their diets, but they still eat less good food than their fellow citizens.

This report was made to the American Association For The Advancement of Science today by Dr. Hazel K. Stebeling.

More than 2,000 scientific reports—the largest number on research ever made at such a gathering—are to be made during the six-day meeting, now in its second day.

Approximately 10,000 scientists are attending.

Dr. Stebeling, chief of the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the Agriculture Department's research administration said families with incomes of $7,500 or more a year eat about two-thirds more milk and meat than $2,000-income families.

Those with the higher incomes, she said, eat more than twice as much fruit as those with low incomes.

And the low incomeers eat ten times less frozen fruits and vegetables than the $7,500 class.

Nevertheless, she said, the low income Americans have been making significant gains in diet quality. To do this they are spending two-and-a-half times more now on what they eat than at the beginning of the war.

Tito Has a New Five-Year Plan In British Help

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Dec. 27—(AP)—Marshal Tito has a new five-year trade pact with Britain and a tidy budget surplus to bolster Yugoslavia against economic pressure by the Russian-led Cominform.

Russia and her eastern Europe satellites have boycotted Yugoslav trade since Tito's break with the Kremlin and the new trade agreement tightens Yugoslav ties with the west.

Yugoslav officials said the trade deal would involve sales totaling $560,000,000 between the two countries. (In London, Britain's board of trade estimated two-way trade under the pact would total $616,200,000,000 in the next five years.)

The news was made-public last night at a meeting of parliament in which the government announced that the national budget not only balanced its budget this year but had a surplus of $250,000,000 in the treasury as well.

Housing for Middle-Income Groups to Get Congress Aid

Washington, Dec. 27—(AP)—Democratic leaders plan to push for action by spring on a new middle-income housing program which they expect President Truman to present to congress.

Mr. Truman reportedly will set forth the general objectives of the program in the state of the union message he sends to the lawmakers a day or two after the new session begins Jan. 3.

Consult Waite House
Senate sources who have been consulted by the White House said a preliminary draft of legislation already has been completed. They said the bill is being keyed to spur the building of homes by private industry at a price which families of moderate income can afford.

The emphasis, it is understood, will be on dwellings which would sell at from $7,000 to around $9,000.

Such legislation would in that regard follow the pattern of a bill, sponsored by Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.), which already has been approved by the senate banking committee.

The bill was shelved in the last-minute log jam at the last session, but backers of the measure were promised by the leadership that it would get early attention in 1950.

The big reason action by spring will be sought is that a stop-gap law put through last October expires next March 31. That measure simply continued the old program of government home loan insurance and mortgage-buying.

Liberalizes Loans
The Sparkman bill and reported by the administration's new measure provide for liberalizing home loan insurance terms to make smaller down payments possible.

Both measures are designed to supplement the public housing and slum clearance program enacted at the last session.

Men Mistake Fat Cigar for Badge Of Money, Jailed

Decatur, Dec. 27—(AP)—Three men who mistook a fat cigar as a badge of wealth ended up today with six month sentences to the state prison farm.

They are Homer W. Weyant, 40, Shreveport, La.; Francis E. Watson, 30, Springfield, Ill., and William Boyd, 52, who said he had no permanent home. Weyant's and Watson's street addresses were unavailable.

Ray Fisher of Decatur told Police Magistrate Harold F. Paine the men stopped him on a street corner last night and asked him for money. When he said he had none, they insisted "you must have some, you are smoking a cigar."

Fisher had them arrested. The magistrate imposed the fines on charges of vagrancy.

Stock Market Jogs Narrow Price Trail

New York, Dec. 27—(AP)—The stock market jogged along a narrow price trail today.

Leading issues moved only in small fractions for the most part. Gains and losses were well mixed.

Traders showed little inclination to force the pace of business although sales once more topped the 1,000,000-share mark. Turnover reached a rate of around 1,500,000 shares for the full session.

Corporate bonds were trimmed here and there.

True Bills Voted In Tavern Shooting

Chicago, Dec. 27—(AP)—Four true bills were reported voted today against two men accused of shooting a six-year-old during a tavern holdup.

The men are Bruce Meeks, 19, and William (Hotdog) Riley, 30. The bills are reported to charge them with robbery and assault with intent to kill the little girl.

Wealthy Cattle Owner Is Held In Wife's Death

San Jose, Calif., Dec. 27—(AP)—Thomas P. Talle, 37, wealthy retired New Mexico cattleman held in the slaying of his wife, remained untalkative in his jail cell today while officers considered what action to take.

Talle was booked on suspicion of murdering pretty Margaret Lee Edwards Talle, 29, former Denver hotel cashier whom he married four years ago. Her bullet-pierced body was found Saturday at the couple's new $75,000 home in exclusive Montecito Heights. Talle was surrendered by his attorney several hours afterward.

The opening of a letter Mrs. Talle once gave her attorney was scheduled today. She gave Attorney Elmer D. Jensen the letter 10 months ago with instructions to open it only "in case of my death."

The attorney said he did not know whether the letter would yield a clue to the slaying. A friend of the Talles, Wiley Van Hecke, said the two "fought like cats and dogs." Mrs. Talle once sued for divorce but had dropped the action, Sheriff Howard Hornbuckle told newsmen.

Cleveland Transit Strike Nears End

Cleveland, Dec. 27—(AP)—AFL unionists bowed to a court injunction today and called off the city's six-day transit strike.

By a voice vote, members of the AFL-Transit Union voted overwhelmingly to abide by an injunction ordering them to give up the strike against the city-owned Cleveland Transit System.

Buses and street cars were expected to start rolling almost immediately. The injunction set a 2 p. m. deadline.

Transit officials however, said no attempt would be made before tomorrow to maintain normal schedules.

One Quarter of Lakes in State Being Destroyed

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 27—(AP)—Erosion-prevention practices on cultivated land is the main hope for preserving lakes serving a water supply purpose, the Illinois state water survey said today. "Silt studies have revealed that approximately one-quarter of Illinois lakes are being destroyed at a comparatively high rate," said Dr. Arthur Buswell, survey chief.

Dr. Buswell said that additional water storage capacity will be required within a "few decades" after a lake is built unless anti-erosion practices are followed.
